SECTION 1 DEFINITIONS

A. DEFINITION OF GRIEVANCE

A grievance is a complaint by an employee that (1) s/he has been treated unfairly or inequitably by reason of any act or condition, including those relative to employee health and safety, which is contrary to established and prevailing policy or practice governing or affecting employees, or (2) there has been as to him/her a violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of the provisions of this Agreement or any of the existing rule, regulations or orders of the Newark Public Schools or the New Jersey State Department of Education having the force and effect of law, with the exception of any items specified in the contract as being non-grievable.

B. DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEE

As used in this Article the term "employee" applies to an individual employee and also to a group of employees having the same grievance.

C. NTU RIGHT TO INITIATE, PROCESS & APPEAL GRIEVANCES

The Union shall have the right to initiate and process grievances which may be initiated and processed by an aggrieved employee under the provision of Section 1-A of this Article, and shall have the right to appeal from the disposition of any grievance at any step,

SECTION 2 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

A. NTU REPRESENTATION

In the presenting and processing of grievances, the employee may be represented, at their own expense, by a person of his/her own choosing, except that s/he may not be represented by any employee organization or by an officer or representative of any employee organization other than the Union. In the event that a grievance is carried to Step 2, the Union shall be immediately notified.

B. TIMELINES AND GUIDELINES FOR MEETINGS & HEARINGS

The time for a meeting or a hearing at all steps other than step 1, within the prescribed time limit, shall be fixed by mutual agreement. In all cases (subject to the provisions of Step 1 below), a representative of the Union shall have the right to be present and to present the Union's view at each step of the grievance procedure. Any notice to be given by an employee under the provisions of Section 2 of this Article may be given for them with their consent by the Union.

If the grievance is not satisfactorily adjusted within five (5) school days after the last discussion, the employee may, with the assistance of a Union representative, submit it in writing within five (5) school days to his/her immediate superior for satisfactory adjustment, but such written grievance must be submitted to such superior in any event within thirty (30) school days following his/her becoming aware or thirty (30) days from when s/he should have been aware of the act or circumstance given rise to the grievance. The said immediate superior shall schedule a meeting to discuss the grievance with the employee and a Union representative prior to making his/her decision, but in any event s/he shall give his/her decision in writing with his/her reasons therefore to the employee, the Union, and the District Superintendent within five (5) school days after the written grievance has been submitted to him/her by the employee.

Step 3 DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT

The employee may appeal to the District Superintendent from the last mentioned decision of his/her immediate superior within five (5) school days after the decision has been given to the employee and the Union pursuant to the above provisions under the caption "Step 2" by giving to the District Superintendent and to the employee's immediate superior, written notice of such appeal setting forth specifically the basis of the grievance. The District Superintendent, or designee, shall meet with the employee and a Union representative within ten (10) school days after the giving of such notice of appeal, and shall give his/her decision in writing with his/her reasons therefore, to the employee, Union and the employee's immediate superior within five (5) school days after such meeting.

Grievance hearings may also be held at the District's Central Office, unless the District designates another location, beginning as early as 2:30 p.m. Teachers shall not receive extra compensation for extensions of the workday caused by grievance hearings.

arbitration mentioned under "Step 4" above, the grievance shall be deemed to have been waived.

Time limits specified in Section 2 of this Article as to things to be done at any step may be extended by agreement between the parties.
