How to Become a Guest Teacher

Welcome to SJUSD Certificated Substitute Support and Information!

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Guest Teacher with the San Juan Unified School District! The following information outlines the guest teacher application and selection process, as well as provides answers to other substitute-specific questions.

- GuestLine Fall 2016 - In process
- Guest Teacher Handbook - Document with procedures and policies for all of San Juan Unified School District's Guest Teachers.
- Update July 1, 2016 - San Juan Unified School district is now accepting applications for Guest Teachers. Please select the application process link below and fill out the certificated on-line application. Once submitted, Sub Services will contact the most qualified applicants with further information.
- Attention CalSTRS retirees under 60!
Effective July 1, 2010, CalSTRS retirees under the age of 60 will be subject to a zero dollar earnings limitation during the first six months after retirement. Members under 60 who return to work for CalSTRS-related service within the first six months of retiring will have their retirement allowance reduced on a dollar-for-dollar basis. After six months have passed, the under 60 retirees may receive compensation, subject to the current postretirement earnings limit.

Address / Phone Number Changes

Keeping your address and phone number current in Substitute Services and Payroll is critical. Written notification of address change is required. Please send the information to Substitute Services with a copy to Payroll.

Social Security

Social Security is comprised of two parts (OADI 6.2% of your gross pay and Medicare 1.45% of your gross pay). Certificated substitute teachers do not pay into OASDI but they do pay into Medicare.

State Teachers Retirement System (STRS)

If you are a current STRS member, all substitute earnings will be subject to STRS and Medicare.

APPLE

If you are a substitute employee and are not currently a STRS member, you have the option to enroll in San Juan's Mandatory Retirement System (APPLE).

- Contributions towards APPLE are 7.5% of the gross pay.
- Once you work for 101 days or 601 hours in a Fiscal Year (July 1 to June 30) OR more than 10 days or 60 hours in a month, membership in the State Teachers Retirement System (STRS) is mandatory and you will be automatically enrolled in STRS.
- At that time, your APPLE deduction will stop and you may request a refund through the Benefit Department, but penalties may apply.
